Yukon Quest Presents

Bunny Boots Cabaret

Starring Valdy, Hank Karr and the Canucks

Get your dancing shoes on and celebrate the 2010 Yukon Quest

January 13, 2010 (Whitehorse, Yukon)- If you can't make it to the start line in Fairbanks, Alaska this year for the 2010 Yukon Quest, there's another way to celebrate. Kick off this huge event with a concert of folk and country classics at the Bunny Boots Cabaret in Whitehorse, Yukon.

Concert crowd pleasers Valdy, Hank Karr and the Canucks are set to take over the stage at the Yukon Convention Centre on Saturday, February 6th, 2010 for a night of stellar entertainment.

Based in Salt Spring Island, Valdy is a Juno award-winning folk singer with an impressive career under his belt. As one of Canada's most influential song writers, he's shared his style across the globe. Globe and Mail says, "Few performers are capable of achieving the kind of energy he generates on stage."

Hank Karr is a Yukon favorite and country staple in the territorial music scene. Often dubbed "the Yukon's best loved balladeer", Karr has explored the terrain, lifestyle and enchantment of the territory in unforgettable songs.

Fans are proud to call the Canucks the "grandfathers" or "godfathers" of live music in Yukon, and rightfully so. This trio of hardworking musicians has been at it for more than 50 years, offering the audience a taste of 1950s and more.

There's no question the Bunny Boots Cabaret line up is sensational. Don't miss out on this chance to support the Yukon Quest and catch some of the country's best talent take the stage.

There will be a cash bar, plenty of room for dancing and rush seating - so aim to arrive early.

Doors open at 7:00 p.m. - show starts at 8:00 p.m. at the Yukon Convention Centre on Saturday, February 6th, 2010.

Tickets are $40 and on sale at the Yukon Arts Centre box office at 667-8574, online at www.yukontickets.com, or at the Yukon Quest office by calling 668-4711.
